Dollar bills on the ceiling, wow! Why are they just hanging there? What you see now is more symbolism than anything. If you decide to be so generous, we collect any donations you wish and every season at different times of the year we surprise Helping Haitian Angels with our blessings. They are friends to Uncle Ike's. Our patrons that have joined us over the last 9 years have helped, in part, to change the lives of these Angels. Thank you for reading this message, and thank you for taking the time to learn about something that's very close to my heart. As most Americans can agree, we have so much to be thankful for and I'm thankful you chose to eat with us today. I hope you enjoy your experience with us and decide to make Uncle Ike's a permanent destination on your next visit, after all, you could be anywhere else, but you're here and we appreciate it.

Thank you,
Tony Northrup - Owner

Mission:

Helping Haitian Angels' (HHA) mission is to care for orphaned children "Angels" in Haiti by raising them to become happy, successful members of their communities who will have the tools to positively impact future generations. HHA achieves this by providing for the overall development of the children in its care. HHA ensures their basic needs are met – nourishment and a safe, comfortable home – and also provides for the children's physical, spiritual, emotional, and academic well-being. HHA consistently strives to strengthen its understanding of the Haitian people and develop long-lasting relationships through a mutual respect and effective communication.
